

This list is a must- any of you at the fcc would like strange calls morning and night- you can call the telemarketers and give them your number- mine is off limits. I demand this list as a private citizen, and I hope the public floods this office with letters demanding better consumer protection from the fcc and others.